Course Overview

This one day, instructor led course teaches participants the importance of teamwork. Teamwork is essential in any successful enterprise. To have an effective team, an organization must be comprised of individuals who pride themselves on being great team players. Many of us consider ourselves to be team players, but are we really? Do we know what that takes; and what managers consider to be the qualities that make a person a team player. What makes a good team player a 'great' team player? By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the definition of a team player and a non-team player
- Know the difference between a team player and a non-team player

- Determine what type of team player you are and how that functions in your workplace
- Know and understand what it takes to be a team player
- Discover the different types of teams that exist within a company
